

Press Note – 1.4.2010

The National Commission for Women in consultation with NHRC has taken a strong objection of the serial “Na Aana ish desh Lado” aired on Colors TV. Dr. Girija Vyas said that the Commission has asked for clarifications from the said channel stating the serial presents women in poor light, appears derogatory and outrages the modesty of women which is likely to deprive, corrupt or injure, the public morality or morals and thereby appears violative of the Indecent Representation of Women (Prohibition) Act, 1986 as well as the Cable TV Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995. The commission strongly condemns the recently aired episodes of the said serial where the women is subjected to torture and coerced to sexual acts outside the marriage ,which shocks the social and moral values of the society and therefore, such episodes should not be telecast.
